HSBC Appoints Md Mahbub-ur Rahman as Deputy CEO and Country Head of Commercial Banking, Bangladesh

Md Mahbub-ur Rahman has been appointed as Deputy CEO and Country Head of Commercial Banking, HSBC Bangladesh effective from 10 April 2016.

Mahbub's brief is to further develop HSBC's franchise in a market which is increasingly vital to global trade and international supply chains.

Bringing over 20 years of corporate banking experience to the task, latterly as the country head of Commercial Banking for HSBC in Malaysia, Mahbub has a track record in driving Commercial Banking, Corporate Banking, Global Trade and Receivables Finance (GTRF) and Payments and Cash Management (PCM) businesses at HSBC.

Mahbub completed his graduation and Masters from University of Dhaka in Finance and also holds an Executive MBA from Kellogg-HKUST.

Francois de Maricourt, Chief Executive Officer, HSBC Bangladesh said: "Commercial Banking is where HSBC began – it is at the heart of our identity as the world's leading international bank. Bangladesh is one of Asia's dynamic emerging economies and Mahbub's wealth of experience in Bangladesh and Malaysia will complement our leadership position in the region and will build upon the momentum we have already created."

Mahbub previously headed Commercial Banking in HSBC Bangladesh from 2006 to 2014, leading the business through a period of transformational growth.
