HSBC and IDEA jointly organises discussion on “Ensuring Education for Disadvantaged Children”

The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited (HSBC) Bangladesh and Institute of Development Affairs (IDEA) recently organised a discussion session in Sylhet on a joint project titled “Ensuring Education for Disadvantaged Children”. Supported under HSBC’s flagship global education programme – ‘Future First’, the project was launched in Dhaka, Sylhet, Khulna and Chittagong Division in September 2015.

The project aims to support the development of school dropout and disadvantaged children. With proper guidance and encouragement the program hopes to bring them into the mainstream educational system for a brighter future. Till date, HSBC Bangladesh has supported three thousand five hundred children under this project in the four divisions.

The program was attended by Shahidul Islam Chowdhury, Additional Deputy Commissioner General, Sylhet, Nazmul Haque, Executive Director of Institute of Development Affairs,
